

I listen to AM, FM and satellite based radio stations. I find it inconceivable to limit a broadcasters content because their media of transmission is different.
Competition! That is what stirs improvement and controls prices. Please do not instill this limitation on satellite radio.